French-English Dual-language Education
The First Bilingual Education Master’s Degree with a French Language Track

Different Tracks

For students who do not have an Education certification there are two options:

- Master’s in Childhood Education — French (34-52 credits)
- Master’s in Early Childhood Education — French (34-52 credits)

For students who have childhood or early childhood certification and need bilingual education certification:

- Advanced Certificate in Bilingual Elementary Education — French (14 credits)

About the Program

In an effort to answer the growing need for French bilingual teachers in New York City, Hunter College is offering the Master’s and Advanced Certificate in Bilingual Education with French-specific bilingual education courses. Students who successfully complete the Master’s or Advanced Certificate will be eligible to apply for teaching positions in New York City’s French Dual Language programs. We encourage non-certified candidates as well as early childhood, childhood and secondary school teachers to apply.
