Teach in a Dual-Language program!

Need for Teachers
The current demand for Bilingual French Teachers creates an unprecedented opportunity for students who study Bilingual Education to have numerous job opportunities available to them once they become certified bilingual teachers. There are currently six elementary schools and two middle schools in the New York City Public School System with Dual-Language Programs. This demand is only expected to grow in the near future, creating endless opportunities for qualified and enthusiastic student-teachers.

About the Scholarship
There are several $5,000 scholarships available, made possible by generous donations from the Société des Professeurs Français et Francophones d'Amérique, the Embassy of France, NewYorkinFrench.net, and individual donors. These scholarships are for candidates enrolled in Master’s or Certificate Program in Bilingual Education who plan on teaching in a French-English Dual-Language Program in NYC after obtaining their degree and/or certifications. Please direct all questions and inquiries to education@frenchculture.org

Teachers’ Requirements
(for French-English Dual-Language Teachers in NYC):

- Proper documentation to work in the United States
- New York State Teaching Certification (out-of-state certifications must be transferrable)
- Bilingual Extension Teaching Certification
- Fluency in both French and English
