

Reminder: Online Screening of _____ on Saturday _____ at _____

Our class has been participating in the CinéSchool program, studying a French-speaking film thanks to educational resources, interactive conversation on FlipGrid and access to the free online screening of the movie. As this is a class project, it is important all students watch the film at home at the date and time listed.

How to watch the film?

To be able to watch the film for free on Saturday, _____ at _____:

- You will receive a private link to the screening hosted on the French Embassy's virtual cinema platform (accessible on computer, tablet or smartphone with an internet connection; best browser to use: Chrome; link only available in the U.S.).
- On the date and time of the screening, click on this direct link. The film will begin at the time mentioned.
- IMPORTANT: The film begins exactly at the time mentioned; you can still watch it until 30 minutes after the beginning of the movie. After 30 minutes, the film will not be accessible anymore.

If you have any questions or any problem when connecting to the platform, please read the detailed FAQ page: <https://e-cinema.the25hour.us/faq> or contact Nathalie Charles: nathalie.charles@frenchculture.org
